

Appendix 1

Park House Photos

Figure 1-1. View from Nature Park oxbow riverbed to northeast up to Park House.

Figure 1-2. View from Lot B to northwest looking down upon the original riverbed.

Figure 1-3. West end of Park House taken from corner of Nature Park at Fraser Ave.

Figure 1-4. East end of Park House taken from live oak-covered Lot B.

Figure 1-5. South face of Park House.

Figure 1-6. East front of Park House from Fraser Avenue.

Figure 1-7. Water Quality lab in Park House looking to west with park security system station at the end of the room.

Figure 1-8. Water quality lab in Park House looking to east.

Figure 1-9. Soils lab in Park House looking to east.

Figure 1-10. Soils lab in Park House looking to west.

Figure 1-11. John Capece explains natural resources education center plans to Senator Graham and Rep. Mahoney at Park House.

Figure 1-12. Senator Graham and Rep. Mahoney tour Nature Park to discuss water issues.

Figure 1-13. Entrance to the LaBelle Nature Park on the west side of the Park House.

Figure 1-14. Benches and plant marker signs are placed along the many trails of the LaBelle Nature Park.

Figure 1-15. The Captain Hendry House is LaBelle's cultural activates center and oldest home.

Figure 1-16. Behind the Hendry House is an outdoor events area next to the Nature Park.